

Imitation

We, as communication partners use imitation to help model a variety of skills which will lay the foundation for the ultimate goal of communication with words. This graphic shows the hierarchy of imitation and also demonstrates ways that families can facilitate imitation skills as a scaffold for language development.

